

Sample introductory email to a college coach prior to a tournament/showcase event:

College Coach Name, Head Men's/Women's Soccer Coach
College/University Name

Coach Last Name-

My name is Player Name, class of 2025, from Rio Rapids ECNL 06/U17 and High School Name in Albuquerque, New Mexico. I have been researching colleges and universities and have identified College/University Name as a school that I have a strong interest in based on the combination of its academic programs, location, size and soccer program. add a brief couple of sentences here with specific/unique reasons for your interest in this university I have attached my player profile for your review.

Include a 2-4 sentence paragraph here which tells a short story that highlights something unique/pertinent about you that might increase a college coaches' interest in you.

On Tournament Dates, my club team is competing at the Tournament Name in Tournament City, State. I would like to invite you out to watch my team and I play on that weekend. I wear jersey #7 and our team colors are burgundy and white. Our game schedule is as follows:

Friday, June 1

4:45 pm vs. Opponent Name Facility Name #5

Saturday, June 2

9:45 am vs. Opponent Name Facility Name #1

Sunday, June 3

7:30 am vs. Opponent Name Facility Name #21

A complete tournament schedule can be found at: include link to team schedule at tournament

I hope that you are able to come out and watch me play!

Thank you,
